

Source 360 SCM: Offering The Best Engineering Products & Services at Competitive Prices

The Indian Supply Chain Market requires a vast setup to leverage costs and provide the best experience to the end consumers. The companies thus involved in the arena, have to be diligent in their services and provide competitive costs and services to stand out being the best in market. Founded by supply chain expert, Mr. Divyesh Kachhi and situated in Gujarat, Source 360 SCM Services is a conscientious organization established to deliver cost effective quality products and services to the world's most demanding Project and Mining sites.

The vision of the company is to be a leader in Supply Chain Management Services by providing customers with quality products and extending exceptional services coupled with superb value for money. The mission is to provide a quality product and service that satisfies customers' needs and expectations the first time every time.

Source 360 SCM extends its services to provide the best deals for Engineering items in a wide range of sectors like Civil Construction Sector, Mechanical Sector, Solar power systems, Packing Material and Plant Consumables. It also provides its services in the form of Inspection and expedition services as per the client's requirement across India, Supply chain data management, Targeted sourcing and Strategic sourcing.

Competitive Prices & Strategic Modules

The company's competitive prices and strategic modules makes it stand out from others in the market. The quality products and services offered by the company adds to the benefits it offers, along with working around the client's schedule for convenience.

The team at Source 360's possesses highly developed analytical, strategic and management skills with a burning desire to get things done. The professionals are high calibre procurement and supply chain experts with years of procurement and strategic sourcing experience.

It has a fine track record for helping leading organisations to drive more value and deliver more savings. Their issues range from delivering cost savings to the bottom line. Sourcing effectively from low-cost regions, specialized material requirement and working together with suppliers to deliver value for a longer term is often a challenge. These challenges are often intensified by addressing them in complex, international, multi-functional environments. Source 360 provides a range of tailored and flexible services, catering to the needs of the client. From helping on a small project to a large scale program, it provides all expert assistance needed. It also helps drive a holistic procurement transformation programme through complete sourcing solutions.

 The mission is to provide a quality product and service that satisfies customers' needs and expectations the first time every time

Developed Deep Relationships with Global Suppliers

Source 360 also supplements client-experience with targeted research

Divyesh Kachhi,
Founder

programs to investigate the practices that really drive supply chain performance. Client often have well performed procurement functions but are looking for help to reach the next level of excellence and raise the profile of the procurement function.

It has managed to develop deep relationships with global suppliers through its experience and ability to provide the right resources at minimized costs, thus providing exceptional value for the business. This has made the company a recognised name in the market for delivering sustainable results in the long run.

The company responds diligently to the needs of customers. It has a strong commitment to provide a significant competitive edge to customers by delivering the best service, information and price. The focused service package is intended to clear all bottlenecks faced by clients and thus make their purchase from India enjoyable and a successful business venture.

Source 360 has depth of expertise and execution focus of a flexible niche player. It is this combination that makes it stand out in a mature and crowded market. The aim is to provide what the market wants through sustainable sourcing and expertise at reasonable prices. CR